SATURDAY, JANUARY 15, 1881.

THE departure of the King on round the world, as now authorizatively announced, will take place on or about the 17th inst., per Steamer City of Sydney, that touches here en route for San Francisco. His Majesty proposes to travel incog. in company with the Lord Chamberlain, and Wm. N. Armstrong, Esq., Commissioner of Emigration. The route of travel of the royal party now indicated, is to proceed from San Francisco per Pacific Mail Steamer to Hong Kong, and perhaps to other points in China :- thence, to Singapore, and the Strait Settlements: thence to Calcutta, and across the Indian Peninsula to Bombay: thence by way of the Suez Canal, and the Mediterranean Sea to Europe; and back homeward by the way of the United States of America. It is expected that the King will be absent about eight months.

HIS MAJESTY the King in Cabinet Council having determined upon a travel abroad around the world, has appointed Her Royal Highness the Princess Liliuokalani Dominis, Regent of the Kingdom during the absence of His Majesty.

This action of the King and Cabinet has received the approval of the Privy Council.

WE note with pleasure that during His Majesty's absence from the Kingdom, the reins of government are to be committed to the Heiress Apparent, Princess LILIU-OKALANI. This lady possesses so fully the aloha alii of the people, and her sound sense and judgment are so widely recognized that we feel sure that in her hands, assisted as they are by an able Ministry, the affairs of this country will be administered during the absence of the King, in a manner which will secure the approbation of all sections of His Majesty's subjects. This being so, we are very glad that Her Royal Highness and he government are not to be trammelled ary to set foot in the interior of her rich in their action by the suggested "Council | and populous Island of Java; and we have of Regency." Our confidence in the wise little reason to hope that she would abate conduct of our affairs as a nation is increased | in our favor, her settled line of policy, not by the recollection that a gentleman of so | to sanction the immigration of settlers in much judgment and of such long experience her Malay dominions, or the emigration of in Hawaiian affairs, is the Consort of Her | people from them. But her suzerainty does Royal Highness.

As His Majesty travels abroad avowedly relations with any part of Malaysia must for the recuperation of health, and not in be in the Government of the Empire of any official capacity, but incog. the royal India; and especially through the concurtraveler will not be under obligation to rence of the British authorities of the Govearry out any definite programme of travel, ernment of the Straits Settlements. but on arrival at San Francisco, may go East or West, as desire or convenience may note this statement : HIS MAJESTY'S departure for a tour of negotiations with the United States Ministhe world has been decided upon, preparater for a treaty of reciprocity with the United tions are made, and friends and loyal subjects in various parts of the Kingdom have States, offering towards compensation the use of the "Pearl Lochs" of Eva, Oahu, for tendered their farewell alohas and adieux a naval station * * * Meanwhile a facto their King; and we have contemplated tious opposition had been excited against and discussed the journey as a patriotic measure of His Majesty. Yet we venture any alienation of Hawaiian territory, howto express what we believe to be a general ever great the advantages that might be feeling of apprehension, that the King's gained, and the negotiations were dropped." departure at this time is premature, that there are many unsettled matters now reson of the lady author, and at the time one quiring the Royal presence here, and that a of the ministers of King Lunalilo, is not little more delay and preparation would conformable to the record of this Ministry, ensure to the Sovereign a more appropriate of which he formed a part. In their "official outfit of means, and guarantee a more suitdeclaration" made July 7, 1873, they state able reception abroad, than is possible that "an additional inducement (to obtain a under the present hasty arrangements. reciprocity treaty) may be wisely made by However, it only remains to wish His Maja cession of the lagoon known as Pearl River esty God-speed on his important journey. to the United States for a naval station."

A QUESTION arises in observant minds-How can we harmonize free institutions and a representative government, with a mosaic of races trained in Asiatic absolutism? Our chief hope, that we shall continue to have peace and ensue it, is in the ministry of the Christian religion, as we that even if the United States should acfeel assured that every church established quisto, a treaty on the basis of a cession of in this Kingdom, that recognizes Christ as the Saviour of mankind, inculcates obedience to authority, as a religious duty But the churches may not be able to leaven or influence all the new elements of population, that may flow into this Archipelego. Therefore it may be, that before churches and schools can prepare people that have been subject only to force and craft elsewhere, to take an intelligent position as citizens of the country, force will be required to preserve the order, which the intelligence of the country has devised. And we must recognize, that whether our institutions be more or less liberal, that there must underlie our government an element of well understood force. If we have that in our present military and police organization and administration, all is well. But if the executive right arm is weak, irresolute, and negligent; and is not ready in any emergency to risk skin and bones, to maintain the majesty of the law, then it is not well; and it is time for observant further bill of particulars; none was attached to the petition, and he had asked for one, and in reply men having at heart the welfare of this some account had been filed, which was he claimed,

THE Gazette, by quotations from some English paper, the name of which it withholds, endeavors to justify the style in which, during the past twelve months, it has seen fit to speak of the King. Had His Majesty, at any time, given way to "caprices," such as those by which the Queen of England has, from time to time, since the death of Prince Albert, "impeded the business of the country," there might have been some justification for criticism of a port. Mr. W. O. Smith, Deputy Attorney General, manly and outspoken character. But when appeared for the Crown and argued that the affidifferences of opinion arise between any section of a community and its Sovereign upon questions of grave importance to the upon questions of grave importance to the State, it is not" criticism" to accuse the King of "caprice," or to assume and to state, as the Gazette has been wont to do, that he is flying in the face of "all the respectability and intelligence of the kingdom." Neither is it "criticism" to insinuate things that are not true, and then hold up His Majesty to ridicule on the ground of these baseless inventions. There is a wide difference between such language as that which the Gazette quotes, and the snarling, contemptuous, and even, at times, libelous paragraphs directed against the King, which might be culled from files of our cotemporaries.

OWING to the attention that "Malaysia and Mr. J M. Davidson for the defense. Mr. Hatch for the plaintiff elected to proceed against the defendants here. It was admitted by the defendant's counsel that the two pieces of land referred to, in the netition belonged to the plaintiff; the point disputed was as to partnership and liability for damages. During the hearing of the case a smart argument occured between counsel as to the admissibility of a certain receipt for deeds as evidence in the case.
